American at the EIWA Championships

- ▶ American is 3-5 against Drexel all-time, last defeating the Dragons in 2023. The Eagles fell to the EIWA opponent 32-6 a year ago.
- ▶ Saturday is the final home meet of the season, and the program will honor Raymond Lopez, Maximilian Leete, Jack Maida, Elijah White, and Liam Volk-Klos before the meet for Senior Day. The group has combined for 225 victories in their careers at AU.
- ▶ The Eagles are coming off a one-point loss at Bucknell last Sunday, 22-21. AU won five matches, but two technical falls and a pin gave Bucknell the bonus point advantage.
- ▶ Lopez and Maida scored pins for AU, while JJ Peace, Caleb Campos, and Emmanuel Ulrich all won their matches.
- ▶ The sophomore Peace is having a breakout season, leading American in wins with a 21-8 record. He landed at #26 on the latest RPI rankings, and #23 on WrestleStat this week.
- ▶ Lopez now has seven pins to lead the team, bringing his career mark to 24 to tie him with Maximilian Leete. The pair currently share the seventh spot on AU's all-time pins list.
- ▶ Leete, Lopez, Maida and Campos have all eclipsed 60 career wins during this season, with Leete leading the way at 69.

HEAD COACH JASON BORRELLI

► FIFTH SEASON AT AMERICAN

Jason Borrelli enters his fifth season as the head coach of American University wrestling in 2025-26.

Borrelli guided the program to its best season since 2011 last year, posting an 11-10 dual record while putting six wrestlers on the podium at the EIWA Championships. It was the third straight season of at least eight victories under Borrelli, adding an exclamation point to the turnaround he's launched since the team went 1-12 in his first season at the helm in 2021.

The Eagles made a significant jump in bonus points earned in dual meets, as Borrelli saw his squad record 43 major decisions (14 more than 2023-24) and 22 technical falls (10 more than 2023-24) to gut out several tight victories. The first win of the season came by one point against Clarion, highlighted by a pin from sophomore Liam Volk-Klos with one second remaining in the 197 bout. Later in the year, the Eagles tallied 28 third period points and won two bouts from behind in a 20-15 win over George Mason.

Alongside the improved team performance, Borrelli saw significant individual achievements from his wrestlers. Redshirt freshman Kaden Milheim led the way at the EIWA Championships, finishing fifth at 165. Coen Baine, Caleb Campos, Raymond Lopez, and Jack Nies all finished in sixth in their weight classes, while Will Jarrell took home eighth place. All three of Lopez's wins were via pin, and the junior took home the Billy Sheridan Memorial Award for the most pins in the shortest amount of time. The quality showing at the conference tournament capped off a breakout season for the junior, who had 11 pins and led the team in dual wins with 13.

AU had 20 placewinners at open tournaments, including tournament victories from Maximilian Leete, JJ Peace, Campos, and Jarrell. Four wrestlers were ranked in the midseason RPI rankings (Jarrell, Campos, Milheim, and Lopez), and Jarrell and Campos both earned spots in the top 33 of the NCAA coaches' ranking.

In 2023-24, the Eagles won eight duals for a second year in a row. That total matched the most dual wins in the past 13 years. Borrelli had a wrestler compete at the NCAA Championships for a second straight season, as Maximilian Leete placed fifth at EIWA to earn an automatic spot at 133 pounds.

Borrelli led one of the most improved programs in the nation in his second season at American, as AU went from one dual win in 2021-22 to eight dual wins in 2022-23. His team captured the trophy at the Chippewa Challenge, beating Central Michigan, Cal State Bakersfield and Campbell in a now-annual event after falling to all three teams the year prior. Borrelli coached two placewinners at the 2023 EIWA Championships in sophomore Jack Maida (fifth at 133) and redshirt sophomore Jack Nies (sixth at 157), with Maida becoming Borrelli's first NCAA qualifier at American.

Borrelli took over a very young squad at AU in his first season. Only seven of the 25 student-athletes on the 2021-22 roster had ever competed collegiately prior to the season. Borrelli earned his first dual win vs. Duke in early December, and later boasted a fourth-place EIWA Championships finisher in then-freshman Jack Maida. Five Eagles earned NWCA Scholar All-American honors in 2021-22, matching the program's highest total since 2012.

Off the mat, Borrelli's teams earned a 3.36 grade-point average in both semesters in 2024, and 17 wrestlers have earned NWCA Scholar All-American distinction over his first four seasons.

Under Borrelli's leadership, the wrestling team's fundraising efforts have skyrocketed, outpacing all other programs in the department by a wide margin, and exceeding their yearly target. The program raised $108,491 in 2025, the most of any sport at AU. Additionally, fan engagement has dramatically increased with the addition of mat-side seating for home matches, and record-setting season ticket sales for the department.

Borrelli left Stanford following a historic season for the program. The Cardinal swept the Pac-12 awards including Borrelli's second Coach of the Year honor, seven of 10 Cardinal starters qualified for the NCAA Championships, and Stanford finished with two All-Americans and its first national champion since 2004 in redshirt sophomore Shane Griffith.

Borrelli came to American on April 13, 2021, after a remarkable run of success as the head coach at Stanford University. Over Borrelli's 13 seasons with the Cardinal, the program sent 35 different wrestlers to the NCAA Championships a total of 64 times. In 2016-17, Stanford set a program record with nine NCAA qualifiers. After the 2021 season that saw five Stanford wrestlers make the NCAA Tournament and a runner-up finish from Shane Griffith, Borrelli was named the WIN Dan Gable National Coach of the Year.

Borrelli's wrestlers garnered a total of 15 All-American honors and 21 individual PAC-12 championships. His 21 conference champions were the most during any 13-year span in program history. Borrelli led the Cardinal to the program's first Pac-12 Championship in 2019 and was named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

The Cardinal posted 122 dual meet victories in Borrelli's 13 years, making him the program's all-time winningest coach.

In 2011, Borrelli's squad put together the best NCAA Championship run in school history, scoring 44 points and finishing in 11th place while crowning three NCAA All-Americans. The Cardinal followed up its 2011 record-setting year by turning in the program's third-highest NCAA Championships finish in 2012, when it placed 16th at the national tournament.

In 2014, Stanford had a regular season to remember, finishing with a 17-5 dual-meet mark, breaking a 39-year-old record for wins in a season. The squad finished runner-up at the Pac-12 Championships, equaling a program-best. The 2016 team provided another successful campaign, placing 19th at the NCAA Championships with six NCAA qualifiers.

Borrelli's Stanford teams placed in the top 20 at the NCAA Championships four times, with the program achieving the feat just three other times prior to his tenure. The 2020 NCAA Tournament was shaping up to be a record-setting event for the program before the season was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Cardinal qualified five wrestlers for the championships, including four freshmen - the most by any school in the nation.

Highlighting Stanford's individual success during Borrelli's tenure was Nick Amuchastegui - a four-time NCAA qualifier, three-time All-American and the school's only two-time NCAA finalist. Amuchastegui was twice named Capital One/CoSIDA Men's At-Large Academic All-American of the Year and was a four-time NWCA Scholar All-American. The 2012 Pac-12 Wrestler of the Year, he was also the Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year for wrestling in 2012, and twice earned the NCAA's Elite 89 Award for Division I wrestling (presented to the student-athlete at the championship site with the highest GPA).

Off the mat, Borrelli's teams thrived academically. The Cardinal finished in the top 16 among all Division I programs in the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) team GPA standings each season finishing third, sixth, 12th, sixth, third, eighth, seventh, 16th, 11th, fifth, fourth and sixth, respectively. Borrelli mentored 23 NWCA Scholar All-Americans (44 total awards) at Stanford, including four four-time recipients in Amuchastegui, Dan Scherer, Nathan Butler and Paul Fox. At the conference level, Stanford had 50 wrestlers earn 98 Pac-12 All-Academic honors under Borrelli's tutelage, while Kyle Meyer earned a Pac-12 Postgraduate Scholarship following the 2014 season. The Cardinal also had five Pac-12 Scholar-Athletes of the Year during Borrelli's tenure.

Borrelli has proven to be one of the finest recruiters in the nation. In seven of his 12 recruiting seasons, the Cardinal landed nationally ranked recruiting classes in InterMat's top 25, with six of those classes falling in the top 15. The 2018 class was the highest in program history at No. 7, while the 2014 class was tabbed ninth overall by InterMat.

In addition to his coaching duties, Borrelli served on the NCAA Division I Wrestling Committee for five years. In 2010, Borrelli graduated from the NWCA's inaugural Leadership Academy; a program designed to equip collegiate coaches with the necessary skills to lead a successful program. In the summer of 2015, Borrelli was invited back by the NWCA as a mentor for future participants.

A former Central Michigan standout, Borrelli started at Stanford as an assistant coach in 2008 and quickly helped guide the Cardinal to one of its most successful seasons in school history. As a team, Borrelli and the staff led Stanford to a 19th-place finish nationally, matching then the program's second-highest finish in school history and just its third all-time top-20 finish (at the time). Owning two of the conference's four All-Americans, the Cardinal's 19th-place finish was the best in the Pac-10.

Prior to coming to Stanford, Borrelli served on the Central Michigan coaching staff. In his first year with the Chippewas, the program won its ninth consecutive Mid-American Conference Championship. The squad ended the season ranked fifth in the final dual meet rankings and finished 15th at the NCAA Championships. Borrelli also helped guide three CMU wrestlers to All-America honors during the 2007 season.

A Mt. Pleasant, Michigan native, Borrelli was a two-time Michigan state champion in high school before beginning his career at Central Michigan in 2001. A four-year starter at 125 and 133 pounds, he was part of five consecutive team Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships. As a junior in 2005, he captured the 133-pound MAC title. Borrelli qualified for the NCAA Championships at 133 pounds twice, in 2005 and 2006, and captained the Chippewa team as a senior. A four-year NWCA Scholar All-American, Borrelli graduated from Central Michigan in December 2005 with a degree in business administration.
