HEAD COACH TAB RAMOS

On August 22, 2022, Tab Ramos was named the Head Coach of Hartford Athletic. An iconic name in American soccer, he has one of the most extensive resumes in all of U.S. soccer as both a coach and a player. He enters his first full season as Hartford's Head Coach after taking over for the final six games of the 2023 season.

Ramos, 55, spent eight years as the Head Coach of the U.S. U20 National Team from 2011 to 2019. In that span, he led the U20s to the FIFA U20 World Cup in 2013, 2015, 2017 and 2019 and made three consecutive quarterfinal appearances, a U.S. record. He wrote his name into international soccer history when he brought the U.S. to the 2019 FIFA U20 World Cup, participating in his record-tying 11th FIFA event as a player and head coach. He was named Assistant Coach to Jurgen Klinsmann for the 2014 FIFA World Cup campaign in Brazil, where

TECHNICAL DIRECTOR, INTERIM HEAD COACH RAY REID

On May 13th, 2022, Ray Reid was named Hartford Athletic's Technical Director. Reid, a four time National Soccer Coaches Association of America "National Coach of the Year" winner, will oversee all aspects of the first team including personnel decisions, selection of coaches and technical staff, player identification and scouting, as well as oversight of the Hartford Athletic academy. The 61-year-old Reid retired from coaching in December of 2021. Reid coached for 33 seasons, 25 of them with the Huskies, and amassed a career head coaching record of 457-149-78, which is the second-highest total in history among coaches at four-year institutions who have coached a minimum of five years in Division I. 312 of those wins came with the Huskies, as did eight regular season titles, four Big East Tournament championships, and a National Championship in 2000. He was inducted into the Connecticut Soccer Hall of Fame in 2003.

ASSISTANT COACH OMID NAMAZI

On Friday, September 2nd, Omid Namazi was announced as Tab Ramos's assistant and Director of Scouting. Namazi holds a wealth of soccer experience and knowledge, having coached under Tab Ramos with the U.S U20 National Team and serving as the U18 Head Coach from 2016-2018. Namazi also assisted Ramos with the Houston Dynamo in 2020 and 2021.

GOALKEEPER COACH DAN GASPAR

On September 29, 2022, Dan Gaspar was announced as Hartford Athletic's Goalkeeper Coach and Assistant Coach. Gaspar, a Glastonbury, Connecticut native, brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the club. Over the last 30 years, he has coached eight different national teams, three collegiate teams, and six other professional clubs. He made a seven-year run as Assistant Coach of the Iranian National Team from 2011-2018 where he worked with Hartford Assistant Coach Omid Namazi. The two of them assisted former Real Madrid Head Coach Carlos Queiroz. Over Gaspar's seven year stretch, he helped the team reach two FIFA World Cups, including a first place finish in their qualification group and third place finish in the group stage in 2018 behind Portugal and Spain. Gaspar also assisted Tab Ramos' U.S. U18 side to a Vaclav Jezek Youth Tournament title in the Czech Republic in 2018. Before joining the Iranian National Team Staff, Gaspar was on the technical staff of the Portuguese National Team during their World Cup run to the round of 16 in 2010.

LAST TIME OUT

Hartford Athletic are coming off a crushing 3-2 loss to Charleston last week, losing the game in its final seconds. Hartford got out to a 1-0 lead with Prince Saydee's third goal of the season, but eventually fell down 2-1 early in the second half. Conor McGlynn responded for Hartford with his first goal of the season in the 60th minute, tying the game at 2-2. The Green and Blue were up a man from the 76th minute on, as a second yellow and subsequent red card was dealt to Charleston's Dante Polvara. With the game still tied in the third and final minute of stoppage time, Charleston were granted a free kick from just inside the sideline in Hartford's third. Arturo Rodríguez curled the ball into the traffic in the box from about 30 yards out, it took a bounce off the wet grass, and slipped by Richard Sánchez for the game winning goal. The ball went untouched into the net directly off of Rodríguez's foot.

LETTING TOO MANY THROUGH

Hartford Athletic have conceded 11 goals this season, the most in the USL Championship so far. Last Saturday marked the fourth match in a row that Hartford had conceded in the first half, and they have yet to carry a lead into halftime. While last week was a step in the right direction on the offensive side of the ball, Hartford's defense took a step backwards.

CEDENO SHINING

Jeciel Cedeño has been a bright spot for Hartford through these opening weeks. The 22 year old forward has been moved into an attacking midfield position to help fill the gaps in Hartford's midfield, and has looked quite comfortable. He picked up his first assist in the Open Cup last Tuesday, and tallied a second helper last Saturday against Charleston. "Jeciel has proven that he needs to play a big role on this team for us to be successful," said Coach Ramos. This is Cedeño's third year with the club, and he's already accumulated

OUT OF AMOH

Striker Elvis Amoh has been ruled out of this Saturday's match with a thigh injury. Amoh joins Andre Lewis and Kembo Kibato on the list of Hartford's injured players, three significant pieces for Hartford. The striker has scored two goals in USL Championship play this year, recorded a hat trick in the Open Cup, and leads the team in shots with 12. He had played every minute of each game so far before being subbed out in the 66th minute last Saturday.

TAKE THE BALL AWAY FROM OAKLAND

Oakland is known as a strong team in transition with dangerous attackers who can score consistently, which Hartford has been preparing for: "Oakland will likely be the best team we'll have faced so far... They have very fast forwards, it's easy for them to get goals... They play with three center backs who are good on the ball so I think for us it's a matter of being able to take the ball away from them and not giving them the game the whole time," said Coach Ramos. Oakland has a 17% conversion rate on the season so far which is number six in the USL Championship league.

A HOLE IN THE MIDFIELD

Hartford have temporarily lost two massive pieces to their midfield due to injury: Andre Lewis and Kembo Kibato. Lewis was carted off the field after suffering a head injury at Colorado Springs, and Kibato left the Birmingham game in Week Three with a foot injury. Lewis trained with the team this week while wearing a protective mask, and "should be just a couple of weeks away" from returning to the field full time, according to Coach Ramos. The timetable on Kibato's return is still not certain. It's a heavy loss for Hartford, as both players are starters and key pieces to the team's connecting play in the midfield and chance creation in the final third.

IT'S A MARATHON, NOT A SPRINT

Hartford Athletic are out to a frustrating start, winless through their first five games and dealing with injuries to key three players (Lewis, Kibato, and Amoh). However, with 29 games left to play, there is no panic in this group. "We're far from panic mode," said Coach Ramos this week. "I'm happy with the direction that the team is going... And now, with other guys stepping in, it makes the team a little bit deeper for when we're healthy, which will hopefully be in about four to five weeks."

LINEUP SHAKE-UPS

Through five games, Hartford Athletic have yet to repeat the same starting XI. With the injury to Elvis Amoh, this week's starting lineup will be different than last week's as well. Kyle Edwards has had a strong run of form recently, nearly scoring the equalizing goal for Hartford last week. He is a quality candidate to fill Amoh's shoes as Coach Ramos tries to plug the gap at the number nine position in his lineup.

Sánchez comes to Hartford after spending the 2022 season with MLS side LA Galaxy. Over a nine-year career, he's totaled 29 appearances and 2,491 minutes in the top tier of American soccer. His best season came in 2018 with the Chicago Fire, where he started 24 games, made 81 saves, and recorded three clean sheets. The Mission Hills, California native has had a well-traveled career around North America. Sánchez signed with FC Dallas after emerging from the club's academy system in 2011. He was sent on loan to the Fort Lauderdale Strikers during the 2013 NASL season, where he made 14 starts and recorded three clean sheets. After four seasons with Dallas (2011-14), the Mexican keeper moved to Tigres UANL in Liga MX, where he stayed for three seasons (2014-17), before signing with the Chicago Fire.

The 21 year old comes to Hartford Athletic in the midst of a bright professional career. Rad signed a homegrown contract with Sporting Kansas City in April of 2021, and made his MLS debut on May 1st during a regular season match against Real Salt Lake at just 19 years old. The defenseman put together a notable performance in his second MLS start, completing 92.3% of his passes in a 3-1 win over the San Jose Earthquakes.

Tulu is returning for his third season with the club, following two quality campaigns in 2021 and 2022. The Togolese defenseman has made 52 appearances for the Green and Blue across two seasons, and has played just under 4,000 minutes for the club (3,939). After starting 27 games in 2021, Tulu saw limited minutes and started just four matches through the first 16 of 2022. He made his fifth start on July 6th at Detroit City FC and made the most of it, recording 10 clearances and blocking three shots. He went on to start all but two of Hartford's 17 remaining games, all a part of a monster second half of the season for the 25 year old. Tulu would finish the season second on the team in blocked shots (27), third on the team in clearances (88), and scored two goals.

Hodge comes to Hartford after spending the last two seasons with Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC. In 2022, he was a mainstay as a left back in the Colorado back line that totaled 10 clean sheets on the season and helped their club reach a Western Conference Final appearance. Across 26 appearances and 21 starts, Hodge made 41 clearances, 23 interceptions, and a team-leading 40 tackles won.

Hodge was acquired by Colorado in 2021 on permanent transfer from W Connection F.C., a six-time champion of the TT Pro League, the top league in Trinidad & Tobago. He made his USL Championship debut with Toronto II in 2016, and spent two seasons with Memphis 901 FC in 2019 and 2020. The 28 year old Trinidadian has five caps for the Trinidad & Tobago National Team, including his appearance in the Soca Warriors' 2-1 win over the United States in the World Cup qualifiers in 2017.

Prince Saydee turned in the best season of his professional career with Hartford Athletic in 2022. After accumulating 12 starts in his first two USL Championship seasons, the Liberian forward started 25 matches for Hartford and tallied 2,120 minutes in 32 total appearances. Saydee was a key piece in generating offensive opportunities for the Green and Blue, using his blistering speed in the attacking third to find space for both himself and his teammates. He recorded a team-leading eight assists and contributed four goals with his powerful left foot, including a stunning strike from 18 yards out against FC Tulsa that will live in Hartford Athletic's all-time highlight reel.

Amoh, 30, comes to Hartford after an outstanding season with Colorado Springs in 2022. The Ghanaian forward was a dangerous weapon in Colorado Springs' dynamic attacking arsenal, which scored the fifth most goals in the USL Championship (64). Across 36 appearances and 30 starts, Amoh contributed 13 goals and three assists while helping Colorado Springs reach the Western Conference Final.

A proven goal scorer in the USL Championship, Amoh has found the back of the net 34 times over four seasons. He entered the league with Loudoun United in 2019, where he scored eight goals in two seasons before having a breakout year with Rio Grande Valley FC Toros in 2021. Amoh led RGV with 13 goals over 22 appearances, breaking their regular season franchise scoring record, and earned Player of the Week honors after recording a hat trick against Miami FC.

Barrera is the club's all-time leader in nearly every statistical category including goals (15), assists (29), appearances (101), and minutes played (8,089). His best season for Hartford came in 2021 where he was named to the USL All-League First Team, the only player in club history to receive the honor. He scored eight goals and notched a league high twelve assists during the campaign. He is widely known among Hartford fans for the "Immaculate Deflection" in 2020 – a goal in which he scored via scorpion kick to win the game and help clinch the Group F title for Hartford Athletic.

Cedeño returns for his third season with the club. Only Danny Barrera and Conor McGlynn have played more seasons in a Hartford Athletic uniform. He made the 2021 squad after being invited to Hartford's preseason and signed with the club after scoring three goals in limited minutes in the preseason. In his first two years with the club, the Ecuadorian forward has totaled 598 minutes across 26 appearances. Cedeño saw an uptick in playing time in the final stretch of the 2022 season. He made his first start of the season in a 3-1 win over LA Galaxy II on September 6th, and would see four more appearances after Head Coach Tab Ramos took over for the season's final six matches.
